ARCHBISHOP MARK COLERIDGE:
KNOX PUBLIC LECTURE 2016

Monday 16 May, 7.30pm

Catholic Leadership Centre, Corner Victoria Parade and Hoddle Street, East Melbourne

'From wandering to journeying: thoughts on a synodal Church'. Journey and pilgrimage are important themes in scripture and throughout Christianity. They provide a background for considering Pope Francis' election in 2013, his decision to convene two Synods in 2014 and 2015, his proclamation of the Year of Mercy in 2016 and his recent publication of the Apostolic Exhortation Amoris Laetitia—seeing all these as part of a process which is far from over. This gives a context for the recent proposal of the Australian Bishops to move towards a Plenary Council for Australia in 2020, seeing the preparation for the Council, its celebration and implementation as part of the same process, which seeks to make the Church more genuinely synodal in the way foreseen by Vatican II and treated more explicitly by Pope Francis.

RSVP: By Wednesday 11 May to 9412 3304 or

SNAPSHOT IN HISTORY

On the 6th July 1924, Archbishop Daniel Mannix blessed the new St. Brendan's Church in Wellington Street, Flemington. The Architect was A. A. Fritsch and the Church was built in the Northern Italy Romanesque style in brick and cost 19,200 pounds.

The high altar of Italian marble was a gift from Thomas Murphy and cost 1,170 pounds.

The Advocate reported that the new Church was an architectural gem.

THEOLOGY AT THE PUB: HIDDEN IMPLICATIONS OF THE SAFE SCHOOLS PROGRAM

Monday 2 May. Dinner and drinks from 6.30pm. Talk commences at 7.30pm.

The Pumphouse Hotel, 128 Nicholson Street, Fitzroy
The so-called Safe Schools Program is one of the most important controversies in 21st century Australia so far. But the vested interests defending the program in the public arena—powerful ideologues, politicians, academics, university administrators, shadowy figures in the background, the media—have managed to throw a multitude of red herrings around the place. That's why many people don't understand what it's really about, and what the stakes are. And that's a huge danger, for all of us and for the fate of democracy in Australia. This comprehensive look at the Safe Schools Program will feature two eminent speakers, Anna Krohn and Pat Byrne. Anna Krohn is a Melbourne educator and educational writer, currently a tutor in bioethics at the John Paul II Institute for Marriage and Family. Pat Byrne is National Vice-President of the National Civic Council and is a campaigner in defence of man+woman marriage. Audience: 18 to 35 year olds; priests and religious of all ages welcome.
