SINCERE THANKS

Dear Friends of St Brendan's and Holy Rosary,

I wish to thank you for your kindness and generosity as I celebrated a range of farewell functions over the last two weeks. I have been overwhelmed by your gifts, cards and kind messages of support, love and gratitude. I was particularly touched by the tributes of the school children from Holy Rosary and St Brendan's. I carry into my future work many fond memories of my time as parish priest of Kensington and Flemington and I have been greatly enriched by the privilege of being your pastor. God bless you and your families and God bless Fr Hien Vu as he takes up his ministry this weekend. Every blessing in Jesus the risen Lord, Fr Max Vodola

GOOD NEWS AND CONTEMPLATIVE LIVING IN A WORLD OF CHAOS

Thursday 13 August, 5–6.30pm,
Newman College, 887 Swanston Street, Parkville.
Christ is 'the still point in a turning world', yet today we often find it hard to simply slow down and just be silent. Contemplation is the ultimate answer to this chaotic, dizzying and fast-moving culture we live in. Dr Donna Orsuto will explore how contemplative practice helps us to recover so much of the energy needed to proclaim the Good News of Jesus Christ effectively in our age.
