A SIMPLE PERSON OF FAITH IN THE 21ST CENTURY: WHAT DOES IT MEAN?

Wednesday 14 October, 7.30–9pm

John Maher Auditorium, Our Lady of the Immaculate Conception, 92 Monash Street, Sunshine

For many people, faith is based on creeds, doctrine and head knowledge. It's about mastering the 'facts' and having the 'right' answers. But best-selling author Margaret Silf believes that faith is not about mastery but about mystery, and that living in that mystery allows us to properly shift our focus from religion to relationship—a relationship with the Divine. About the speaker: Margaret Silf is passionate about making Christian spirituality accessible to people with no theological background. She is a writer and has led retreats around the world. Her books include Inner Compass; Sacred Spaces: Stations On A Celtic Way; and Companions of Christ: An Introduction to Ignatian Spirituality. Trained by Jesuits of the British Province in spiritual companionship, she left paid employment as a technical author in the computer industry to devote her time to writing and leading retreats, workshops and days of reflection. Her columns in America Magazine reflect her experiential approach, drawing connections between the eternal truths of the Christian vision and the moment-by-moment events and choices of everyday living.
