FR BILL'S MEMORIAL CONCERT

It is with much regret that I find myself away from Melbourne on sabbatical for this inaugural Fr Bill Jordan Memorial Concert. Today we honour a wonderful man and devoted pastor who gave his life generously in the service of the Church especially in the area of liturgical music. Fr Bill Jordan's many talents were recognised in Melbourne, across Australia and at the international level. Today we honour that memory and legacy. I thank the many organisers and volunteers who have contributed so much to arranging the event. I know that God's blessing and grace will accompany the concert especially in bringing together so many talented people and friends of Fr Bill who remember him with fondness and affection.

Every blessing,
 Fr Max Vodola

Servite Dio nell'allegrezza, Con canti di gioia andate a lui. Rit

Poiche' il Signore e' nostro Dio: Da lui siam create, noi siamo suoi. Rit

Noi siamo il gregge che egli pasce, Il popolo suo: Gloria al Signor! Rit.

Gloria al Signore, Padre e Figlio, E Spirito Santo. Lode al Signore! Rit.

FAREWELL AND THANK YOU

In the past few months a number of parishioners have moved from St Brendan's Parish, some not too far away and others to country Victoria.

We would like to express our gratitude to Joan & Patrick Bergin, Helen Norden, Maria and Antonio Zarafa. These parishioners and their families have been actively involved in the life of St Brendan's for decades, some for over a hundred years.

St Brendan's Parish, School and Kindergarten have benefitted greatly from their concern and dedication in the following areas: Parish Council, School Board, Liturgical Ministries, Altar Society, Social Concern, Hall Committee, Tuck Shop, Counting, Friendship Club, Thanksgiving Campaign, Fetes and Fund Raising, Visitation and taking Communion to people at home and in the nursing homes, Christian Living Weekends, School sports and other Social activities.

Prayer of Thanksgiving

With thanksgiving to God, our prayer is always filled with profound joy for you, when we think of the strength you are for others, and letting God live in you with such beauty and truth.

May God's spirit of peace be with you, living sign of the love that you share; may your home be filled with goodness and caring, a place where there's no difference between stranger and friend.

May God's presence be what you offer, as you welcome each other this day. Simple kindness: the bread of our lives, a word of peace, a gentle look: this God's gift to be shared.

With thanksgiving to God, our prayer is always filled with profound joy for you, when we think of the strength you are for others, and letting God live in you with such beauty and truth.
