Thanks for your generosity.HOLY ROSARY PARISH CENTENARY (2015)

Next year Holy Rosary Parish celebrates its centenary. An original church in Derby St dating back to 1901 was part of St Brendan's but in July 1915, Holy Rosary was formed as a separate parish and much has happened in that time to create the parish we have today.

Such important occasions are great celebrations for a parish community. To prepare for this occasion and involve as many people as possible, a group of interested parishioners is being formed and Yvette Oswald has agreed to be the convenor in order to plan activities. Please contact the parish office on 9376 6148 or email Yvette at yvettesw@gmail.com

Holy Rosary School's Family Fun Day is on again on November 15, 2014. We know there are many talented people connected with our Holy Rosary community and we'd love to see what you've been crafting lately. We welcome all hand crafted goods to sell at our Art and Craft stall at Family Fun Day.

If you have any art or craft materials you would like to donate for upcycling projects, or you would like to start making some hand made goods for sale at our Family Fun Day or donate your finished hand-made treasures (knitting, sewing, woodworking etc.) please contact Debbie Hui on 0412 271 048 or drop your donations into the school office.

All welcome. No RSVP required.

Many thanks to all parishioners who responded so generously to the recent Stewardship Renewal. A summary of both parishes is listed below:

Holy Rosary

Increase in pledged income of $183 per week; an increase of 21%
6 new families pledged a total of $135 per week
12 families increased their current pledge
9 families are able to maintain their current pledge

St Brendan's

Increase in pledged income of $265 per week; an increase of 19%
10 new families pledged a total of $187 per week
14 families increased their current pledge
22 families are able to maintain their current pledge

The 19% and 21% increase is higher than the average across the Archdiocese of Melbourne. This is important for two relatively small parishes such as St Brendan's and Holy Rosary to meet existing expenses and plan for the future.

If you wish to contribute on a regular basis either through weekly envelopes, credit card or direct debit (weekly, fortnightly, monthly, quarterly), there are pledge cards at the back of the church or please contact our respective parish offices below:
